Subject: Re: Forecast on Panini Autos

Hi Matt,

Revolution has shifted slightly. It is now slated for 5/22. Moreover, as Panini' s staff has recently undergone a mass exodus, they are operating extremely lean. As a result, we are seeing a major lag between the time in which we ship completed autographs to Panini' s inventory management center and when autographs are actually counted, QC' d and processed. As an example, there are autographs that we have tracked as being sent to Panini on 4/11 that I still have not seen on a P.O.

That said, I believe it is safe to assume the Revolution revenue will come in May. I will be invoicing Panini for amounts of $193K and $139K before the end of this week and I expect a PO for another large amount to hit my inbox tomorrow.

The expectation for Select is still the same.

Thanks,
Steve
